

Press Release

On Thursday, October 11 at 7:30PM in the Library Community Room the Diversity and Discussion Book Club will discuss “Tomorrow Will Be Different: Love, Loss, and The Fight for Trans Equality” by Sarah McBride.

The Diversity and Discussion Book Club is co-sponsored by the Trustees of the Needham Public Library, the Needham Human Rights Committee, the Needham Diversity Initiative, and the Needham Coalition for Transgender Equality.

The discussion will be led by Ilisa Aronow and Tracy McKay of the Needham Coalition for Transgender Equality.

On Monday, October 22 at 7PM at the Needham Congregational Church the Needham Coalition for Transgender Equality and Freedom for All Massachusetts invite everyone to attend an evening with Sarah McBride “Why Yes on Question 3? : A Conversation on Preserving Transgender Rights in Massachusetts.”

In 2016, at age 25, Sarah McBride was the first transgender person to speak at a national political convention. She is one of America’s most visible voices for trans equality.

All programs are free and open to the public.

More information: Lois Bacon LBacon2003@earthlink.net or Ilisa Aronow ilisa.aronow@gmail.com